

RESPONSIBILITIES OF A DIRECTOR

2017 Gold Sponsors

AVISTA
CITY OF SPOKANE
GUS JOHNSON FORD
THE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW
WELLS FARGO

2017 Silver Sponsors

BMW of Spokane
Coeur d'Alene Casino
Fred Meyer
i-Heart Media
Lamar Advertising
Spokane International Airport
STCU
Tourism Promotion
Association
The Davenport Hotel
The Spokane Tribe of Indians

- All Directors will demonstrate financial responsibility through the prompt payment of all financial obligations to The Spokane Lilac Festival Association. Directors will receive their Dues Invoice at the September Lilac Directors Meeting. Payment options are 1) 100% of dues package in full; 2) 50% of dues package by October 31st and 50% by January 31st; 3) pay by quarterly installments to be completed by March 31st.
- All Directors will purchase, maintain, and wear the Association's official uniform in accordance of accepted uniform guidelines and policies.
- All Directors will attend Directors' meetings as scheduled. Currently, these include the September annual meeting; October for budget approval; November, January, and February for nominating committee and budget revision; March, April, and June for election of officers. December meetings may be scheduled as necessary and usually incorporate a social gathering which includes inviting of spouses/significant others, special friends, and guests of the Festival. The September, April, and June meetings may be attended by spouses/significant others and special guests. If you are unable to attend any meeting please notify the office.
- Each Director will participate in the financing activities of the Lilac Festival as directed through the Spokane Lilac Festival Association Standards, Policies and Procedures. These activities currently include recruiting new members annually, purchasing a minimum of $100 in Lilac Festival pins, participation in annual fund raising, paid attendance at the Coronation, and other events as scheduled.
- All Directors must be available for assignments and duties on Armed Forces Torchlight Parade Day (the third Saturday in May) which includes, but is not limited to, security, crowd management, corner cadre, etc. Directors are strongly encouraged to participate in all Lilac Festival events and activities such as the Coronation in March, Royal Tea in April, Military Luncheon, Queens Luncheon, Presidents Dinner, and Farewell Breakfast.
- Choose (1) one of (10) ten Lilac Committees to participate in and attend the committee's monthly meeting. The ten Lilac Committees are: Area Relations, Community/Military Relations, Underwriting/Sponsorships, Director Development, Float, Hosting, Marketing, Communication/Media, Parade, and Royalty.
- Attend (2) two Regional Parades and (1) one NW Hosting Parade overnight stay.

