

SPOKANE LILAC FESTIVAL ASSOCIATION

CANDIDATE PRIVILEGES

Each High School Lilac Royalty Candidate will receive her school's pass along Royalty Candidate sash to be worn at all Lilac Festival-sanctioned functions.

Each High School Lilac Royalty Candidate will be offered hours of skill training, which at this time includes public speaking, stage presence, personal appearance, interview skills, resume development, etiquette and leadership.

Each High School Lilac Royalty Candidate will acquire many hours of community service.

Each High School Lilac Royalty Candidate may have an opportunity to participate in media events, including television and newspaper interviews.

ROYALTY PRIVILEGES

Each member of the Royal Court is eligible for a variety of scholarships sponsored by local community organizations or individual donors.

Each member of the Royal Court will be awarded a scholarship provided by the Spokane Lilac Festival Association/community business to be used toward tuition at a college/university/school of her choice. The Queen is granted an additional scholarship.

Each member of the Royal Court will receive at no expense, a custom tailored wardrobe, including tiara and sash, from the Spokane Lilac Festival Association.

Each member of the Royal Court will sit for an official portrait, compliments of Hawkinson Photography. These portraits will be displayed at area events and on the Lilac Festival web page, and available for purchase

Each member of the Royal Court will have royalty expenses provided by the Spokane Lilac Festival Association for the activities during Lilac Festival Week and at out-of-town events that take place throughout the summer.

Each Member of the Royal Court will have opportunities to participate as a guest of several community organizations, at luncheons and other social functions from March through May and throughout the summer.